NWR NOW ACCEPTING ONLINE PAYMENTS

In keeping up with modern times, Namibia Wildlife Resorts (NWR) spent the past few months refining its online booking platform. This was done in order to accommodate our customers who want to make their booking and pay for it right away in the comfort of their environments.

The idea of revamping our booking platform came about after we realized how more of our clients are searching for ways to make their bookings as efficient as possible without the need to write an email and wait for feedback for them to finalize their travel arrangements.

“We then decided to look at the best possible solution that would make our clients’ lives easier. We are therefore happy to announce that our booking platform partner could provide us with a timely solution that we were happy with,” says Mrs. Zelna Hengari, NWR Managing Director. With the new booking platform, we have also made some subtle changes to our website in order to assist our customers to be able to better navigate around it and find the information they require effortlessly.

Mrs. Hengari continued by saying, “It is pleasing to note that the website is able to adapt to different platforms such as tablets and smartphones without our customers noticing any changes. This will make it easier for them to do their bookings and acquaint themselves with the different resorts in the comfort of their homes”.

Mr. Mufaro Nesongano, NWR Corporate Communications and Online Media Manager says, “Though we spent a lot of time and energy testing our online booking platform, we are glad that we took this time in order to provide a world class platform to our customers. It is significant to mention that this is a continuation of how we are adapting to the fast moving digital world”.

NWR AT SOE GAMES

We recently participated in the State Owned Enterprise (SOE) Games that took place at the University of Namibia (UNAM). The purpose for the games was to bring together various SOEs that are spread across the country with the objective of us getting to know one another through sports.

Mrs. Zelna Hengari, NWR Managing Director, heaped praises to the organizers. “The atmosphere was unbelievable as we competed with some of the best players in the various SOEs. I must particularly thank our various team members who participated and made us proud on that day. I certainly believe that, through sports, we are able to appreciate what team work is all about and how to compete in a spirited manner,” said Mrs. Hengari.
